ness, farming implements and household furnishings.

Three alleged burglars, William E.
Price, Frank Cramer and Richard Morgan, arrested by the police on Sunday for trying to sell stolen knives, revolvers and saws, were brought before Justice Curtis to-day, charged with burglarizing the store of William Rider, at Morgan, Montgomery county, Indiana, on Aug.
17th. Mr. Rider was present at the examination and identified the articles found with the prisoners as his property. The defendants were held to answer, the Justice fixing the bail of each at $300. All three went back to jail.

This morning William Bradley got Justice McGorray to issue a state warrant for the arrest of Katie Neibert, who is charged with having assaulted Bradley's children with a broomstick. It is said to be the second offense. The parties live outside the city limits, on South Broadway. Constable Weltzel will bring the accused into court.

For the present the newly organized Pension Examining Board will meet weekly at the residence of the secretary, Dr. Randall.

The assault case against John M.
Hughes, of Long Creek, came up for trial before Justice Curtis this morning, but as the complaining witness, John N.
Thatcher, did not appear, the defendant was discharged. An attempt was made for Thatcher for contempt of court.

The great Forepaugh, with his great circus and menagerie, has come and gone.

His visit was the occasion of a general holiday, and as the weather was propitious, nearly everybody for miles around turned out to bid the veteran showman welcome. At the afternoon performance there were, perhaps, 7,000 people beneath the immense pavilion, and at night 5,000.

The menagerie was good in all its features, the soft-eyed giraffe, "Sarah Bernhardt" and the $100,000 herd of elephants attracting general attention. The performances in the three rings were generally done. The Majiltoes, the strong man, Mlle Karbovka, in her daring leaps from the table, the trapeze performers, the acrobatic innovations by the La Martine Brothers, the juggling, the performing elephants, stallions and dogs, were special features of the high-toned entertainment, which closed with the exciting hippodrome races and usual concert.

During the evening Prof. Mentor's band rendered fine music in a clever manner.
The circus left Decatur early this morning for Springfield. The day passed off without any accidents or quarrels, and thus far no robberies have been reported.

Merchants, restaurateurs, hoteliers, hackmen and hawkers gathered in many dollars that failed to reach Forepaugh.

Sand-Bagged.
Charley Logan, who recently went to Lincoln, seems to be in hard luck. Robbers held him up in Decatur last winter for a watch and some money, and now they have caught him again in Chicago.

The Chicago Journal of Thursday, contained the following:
Charles A. Logan, of Lincoln, Ill., a restless and Palmer Home, complained that he was sandbagged near the Baltimore and Ohio depot. The thieves secured $185, and made good their escape.
They left Mr. Logan $9 and his gold watch.

A Slave Thru.
J. P. Thrift, who resides near Emery, with a Gear Scott Separator Peetles thresher and an Autman & Taylor engine, commenced threshing on Edward Foulk's place at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, and quit at sundown, having threshed 2,720 bushels of oats, leaving it all in good shape, having lost some time in moving and resetting the machine during the afternoon. Owing to the bad condition of the grain during the forenoon most of the work had to be done after the dinner hour. From noon until sundown 1700 bushels were threshed. This as the speediest report received this season. Who can beat it?

Married.
On a recent visit to Sandusky, Ohio, Mr. Paul Noble, who is connected with the Decatur opera house, was united in marriage to a well known young lady of the Buckeye town. Mr. and Mrs. Noble are now keeping house on Durfee street.

Camp Dickey—A Midnight Attack.
Members of the Decatur Guards, Company H, and other militia of the Second brigade had a sudden call to arms at Camp Dickey, Springfield, Wednesday at the midnight hour. The news thus dis-cribes the scene: "At 12:15 last night the camp was startled from their sleep by the sound of the long roll and firing from the battery and a few shots from the skirmish line. The militia were immediately by officers and men alike and they rushed out to fill the command as quick as possible, the object being to see how soon they could form in line for action. Col. Smith of the Eighth regiment, was sound asleep, but when the call was given he had his regiment out in ten minutes. Col. J. H.
Barber, of the Fifth regiment, selected from his sound sleep and ordered his regiment out in eight minutes, it being the first regiment on the color line. Company C, of Governor's Guard, was the first company of the regiment out, all in line in three minutes' time. They were highly complimented at headquarters. Company E was out in five minutes; company F, six minutes; company I, five minutes and thirty seconds; company F, six minutes and thirty seconds; company H, seven minutes; company G, seven minutes and thirty seconds. Before dismissing the regiment the commanding general complimented them for their promptness. Col. Stinson of the Ninth regiment, was selected that the general ordered him to form his regiment on the color line. Men appeared on avenues in their shirts, and, while awaiting what the matter. Company A was the first company in line in nine minutes; the regiment was thirteen minutes all sold getting in line. The sixth regiment was the second on the color line, all on hand in nine minutes.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Capt. Hamilton, of Harrisburg, is in the city to-day.

Miss Minnie Parker will be one of the bridesmaids at the Bishop-Hatchman marriage at Lebanon, Ohio, on Sept. 1st.

Dr. J. H. Thomas, of Elizabethtown, Ky., arrived this morning on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. J. C. O'Leary.

Manager Shilling has information that the First League Club will arrive in Decatur from Chicago on Sunday morning.

Miss Ada Lower, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Shelbyville for the past three weeks, will return home to-morrow accompanied by her cousin, Edward Biggs, of Colorado.

R. N. Ham, No. 319 South Water street, who has been quite sick for a few days, is somewhat improved to-day. However, he is quite sick yet, but with care it is believed he will recover.

D. Wishard, of St. Louis, general passenger agent of the Frisco line, was in the city yesterday, and was shown about the city by his host, Mr. W. C. Lewis. It was a good day for Mr. W. to come as he had a good opportunity to see our country cuisine and belles while he gazed upon the many fine residences.

Bloomington Leader. Mr. Alce Bach-rach, of Decatur, and Louis Fox, one of Cheap Charley's salesmen, have just purchased a skating rink at Dixon, Ill. Mr.
Bachrach, assisted by Ed O'Connor, a prominent gentleman of this city, will have the management of the rink. Mr.
Fox will still be active as a salesman here.

DECATUR AT SAN JOSE.

The following interesting letter from a well-known Decatur citizen who is in California with his family to spend the winter, was received yesterday:

SAN JOSE, CAL., August 21.
Eps. REVEREND: According to promise, I write to inform you that we arrived here on time, and had a very pleasant trip. We are now under the guardianship of our old friend, Maj. E. O. Smith and family, who for three days have taken their carriages and driven us over their beautiful city and principal places of interest, which to be rightly appreciated must be seen. No pen can describe the beauties of this country, and the climate is simply grand. To go to Decatur is about as hot as we have seen. We have just returned from Mr. Smith's fine orchard; peaches, pears, plums, figs, English walnuts, almonds and every fruit that grows in any country going to waste; the ground is covered with better fruit than we ever see in Decatur. We have met several of our old acquaintances here, Mr. Bradley, Bruce and Lucy, and many others who with one united voice proclaim that they would not go back for the best farm in Illinois. Mr. James Jones and family say they would not return to the best house in Illinois, and I think they mean what they say; they have a beautiful home, and enjoy perfect health, with the exception of Mr. Jones, who is a little lame, but he feels much better already. When we get located we will write you again and attempt to describe some of the most interesting points of our journey, and through your paper answer a hundred promised letters.

Yours, truly,
FRANK L. WOOD.

The John Seay Case.
The evidence in the case of The People vs. John Seay and Wm. Decker, for the assault upon Arthur Kellam, was to have been heard by Justice Curtis this forenoon. By consent the examination was deferred until this afternoon. The principal complaining witness, Arthur Kel-lam, still remains invisible, but Mr. Vail is confident of securing the conviction of the accused. It is now generally understood that Kellam has left Decatur.

The funeral of the late Andrew Diller, of Forsyth, was held to-day. The burial occurred at Greenwood between 12 and 1 o'clock. A large number of people followed the remains to the grave.

Decatur, 19, Indianapolis, Ind.
The Decatur Reds had it all their own way with the Indianapolis Blues, yesterday afternoon, and won the game easily by a score of 19 to 8. They pounded Broderick easily in the second inning and also hit Barnes fairly well. Score by innings:
Decatur, 3 8 2 1 1 3 0 0—19 Indianapolis, 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 2—8

The umpire was Mr. Zimmerman, formerly second baseman for the Reds. Mo-Harg was the pitcher for the home club and Decker and Henri change catchers.
Conley led off in batting, making a home run, a three bagger, a two bagger and singles. Two batters were also made by Ford J.; Staley 2, and Henri 1, the other Reds finding the ball easily. Cruthers had a Mascot yesterday. He was on the sick list, but he batted the ball, and each time he got to first on errors of the infield, scoring three runs. Conley made a home; Decker 1; Cahill 1; Lattin 2; Ford 3; Henri 2; Staley 2; Maffarg 1.
The game was notable for hard hitting, good running and fielding by the Reds, and countless errors by the Blues.

This afternoon the Springfield Reds play the Decatur Reds; also to-morrow afternoon.

Nautic Notes.
Dr. Fisher of Decatur contemplates locating here.

About 1300 feet of new sidewalk is being laid in our burg.

We understand we are to have two more livery stables in this place.

Mr. Stevenson, a well-to-do farmer residing near Decatur, has rented W. J.
Miller's property here and will engage in the livery business.

Masters Bros. are to have a new glass front in their grocery room soon.

John Lineham, a promising young man of Springfield, was in our city visiting last Saturday and Sunday.

Arthur Dreeshoh, editor of the Illiplois Center, was in our city on business Wednesday.

Mr. Kate Whitlock and children are visiting relatives in Littlefield.

Joe Conaghan, our popular butcher, attended the funeral of Camp and Call, the murdered policeman, at Springfield on Wednesday. Joe says it was the largest funeral he ever attended.

John Wacker is now on his way home from Germany, where he has been visiting relatives for two months.

Miss Emma Weigand, a charming young lady of Decatur, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Kizer, returned home Tuesday evening.

Prof. W. W. Kyle has returned from Springfield where he attended the state school examination; he reports that there were only four in attendance.
